What Is Going Tonight
Obvolut Lodge, No. 14, I. O. O. F. meets at 807 Main street.
Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association meets in St. Joseph's hall.

About seventy-five members of Willimantic Branch of the Needle Work Guild of America met Wednesday afternoon in the Woman's Club room, No. 807 Main street, for the twenty-fifth annual tea and donation day. The meeting was called to order promptly at three o'clock by the president, Mrs. A. C. Scripture, who called upon the secretary for her report. The report of Miss Mary Hatch, which was given in detail told of the vast amount of work done by the members of the guild and that in all about 700 garments had been received and placed on exhibition in the room. The report of the treasurer, Mrs. D. C. Barrow, showed the guild to be in good financial standing. A few words of greeting were spoken by Mrs. Phoebe J. Edison, who recently gave up her duties as distributor of the garments after seventeen years of faithful service. She was followed by Mrs. Ora Clark who told of the work of the welfare bureau of this city. At the popular entertainment program, Miss Martha Kalmis delightfully sang "The Rose in the Garden" by W. H. Neidinger, and "The Birth of Morn" by Franco Leoni. She was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Lucy Stone. Tea, cake and cookies were served by the committee, Mrs. C. D. Stone, Mrs. Arthur Silvers and Mrs. Arthur Clark. The garments that had been donated by the members of the guild and by local people interested in the work, numbering about 700, were displayed during the meeting. There was a large assortment of babies' clothes, towels, shoes, underclothing for girls and boys, stockings, caps, children's dresses and rompers, night clothes, and other practical articles. All these will be given away by the guild to such places as the Newton Home, county home at Putnam, home service bureau and hospitals. Some of the articles will be given to the widows of World War veterans and the remainder will be turned over to the local welfare bureau for distribution. The Needle Work Guild which has just entered its twenty-sixth year, stands seventh among the guilds of the United States in the amount of work it produces in proportion to its membership and its record has been cited as an example to many guilds in other cities throughout the country.

Graduation for the class of 1919 of St. Joseph's hospital was held at St. Mary's hall Tuesday evening. A good attendance of relatives and friends of the graduating class. Dr. Owen O'Neil delivered the address and the diploma was presented by Dr. P. E. Guile. Following the graduation there was a reception at the nurses' home which was attended by members of the medical staff, executive board, officers of the hospital auxiliary, and the alumnae of the school. The members of the graduating class are: Miss M. Helen Gifford, of Norwich, Miss Elizabeth L. Holliday, of Westerly, R. L. Miss Catherine G. Savage, Miss Alice L. Hillyard, and Miss Mary E. Sullivan of Willimantic.

Tuesday night at The Elms there were assembled about three hundred employees of the American Thread Company, mostly members of the family prize contest in the contest for the best kept lawn and window boxes in the tenements of the company. Among the special guests were General F. E. Kelley, of the executive board and Donald H. Curtis, the new agent of the local mills. The Elms had been attractively decorated and an entertainment had been arranged which in every way proved a success. The winners of the prizes follow: Oaks District, first prize $5, David Peacock; 74 Pleasant street; second prize $3, Gustave Van Haverbeke, of Quaker avenue; third prize $2, John Lutton, 31 Crescent street. Fourteen prizes of $1 each were given in this group. Main and Factory Group: first prize, tied, $2.50 each, Ernest Asselin, 4 Factory street; Mike Woodick, 100 Main street; second prize, tied, $2 each, William Richmond, 222 Main street; Moses Bombria, 268 Main street; third prize, including fourteen prizes of $1 each were given in this district. Ives street and the Hill Group, first prize, $3, Joseph Branley, 43A Ives street; second prize, four tied, $2 each, Frank Gaudin, 13 Ives street; Anthony Ramonick, 128 Ives street; John Bodga, 23A Ives street; and H. Shatt, 228 Ives street. Fourteen other prizes of $1 each were given in this district.

Suit for $1000 has been brought by William P. Lennon of this city against William B. Welch, of Hartford, as the result of an accident which occurred shortly before midnight on Tuesday, Oct. 1, near the Bolton town boundary. This case is returnable to the superior court of Willimantic on the first Tuesday of January. The accident occurred when Mr. Lennon was returning to this city from Hartford with a party of local young men after having been to the city to see Cardinal Mercier. The Lynch family was returning from Jewett City where they had been attending a funeral. According to the plaintiff he had brought his car to a stop on the right side of the road to avoid being struck by the car being driven by Welch. The Welch car was damaged and Mrs. Welch was injured. The driver had promised to pay for the damages done to the Lennon car but so far had not done so.

Several delegates of the local chamber of commerce have left this city for New Haven Wednesday to attend the state convention.

Edward Moriarty, who was arrested Tuesday at Waterford by Chief of Police Daniel J. Killourey, appeared before the police court Wednesday to answer to a charge of non-support of his wife and five children. His first plea was not guilty to the charge but later he changed it to guilty. Moriarty has a good position with the telephone company in New London and in view of the fact that he promised to support his wife and children in the court was lenient with him. Moriarty said he had no objections to having $12 a week taken from his pay and sent to the wife and children. His case was continued for three months and Moriarty was allowed to go on his own recognizance.

John Davis, arrested Tuesday night for vagrancy, also appeared at the court, but had little to say about himself other than that he was a Syrian and that he was not guilty of the charge of vagrancy. He claimed that the last work he had done was in New Britain about a year ago. He received a sentence of thirty days in jail.

One person, a young woman from Coventry, appeared at the common council chamber at the town building Wednesday to take the examination for a clerkship in the census bureau at Washington, D. C. Clifford F. Smith, local secretary of the civil service board, was in charge of the examining in this city.

There is to be no session of the superior court in this city today as a session has been reached in the case of Samuel B. Harvey, administrator, vs. Horace S. Eaton, Wednesday morning, following which Judge Lucien S. Burpee ordered the court adjourned until Friday morning at 10:15, when the regular short calendar session will be held. It was announced in court Wednesday that the case of William E. Webber vs. Daniel P. Dunn et al. had been withdrawn. This case resulted from injuries received by Mr. Webber at the time the rear wall of the old Jordan block, located on the corner of Main and Washington streets, was dynamited on the night of the fire of 1918. The dynamiting of the wall had been ordered by Mr. Dunn, who at the time was mayor of the city.

The death of Robert Edward Pickett occurred at 4 o'clock Wednesday morning at his home, No. 21 Prospect street, following a year's illness. He was born in this city, July 8, 1882, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pickett, and was one of Willimantic's most popular young men. Mr. Pickett was a lover of music and received his training in this art in this city and always practiced here with success. He was the organizer and leader of Pickett's orchestra, well known for its fine work throughout the state, and he was connected with many fraternal and musical organizations. Surviving Mr. Pickett are two brothers, John P. and Thomas J. Pickett, and a sister, Miss Mildred Pickett, all of Willimantic.

Thomas K. Pitts for the greater part of his life a resident of Ashford, died at an early hour Wednesday morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. Mary C. Gifford, of No. 183 Walnut street, Willimantic. Mr. Pitts was born in Ashford, Oct. 23, 1851, the son of Stephen and Watty (Moore) Pitts. He received his early education in that town before moving to Hartford, where he entered the employ of David Clark, a prominent merchant of that city. He resided there for about forty years, keeping his residence in Ashford all the while. In 1900 he returned to Ashford and lived with his brother, John S. Pitts, until September of this year when he came to Willimantic. In politics Mr. Pitts was a Democrat and had held many offices of the town and had been a representative from Ashford in the state legislature for a number of terms. He was a delegate from Ashford to the constitutional convention of 1902. He is survived by two brothers, John S. Pitts of George H. Pitts of this city, and a sister, Mrs. Mary C. Gifford of this city.

There was a meeting of the Young Women's Guild at the Congregational church house Wednesday evening, about 60 members being present. At 6:30 o'clock the members were served the following menu: cold meat, salad, rolls, macaroni, cheese, cream cake and coffee. As it was the first meeting of the society the officers for the ensuing year were chosen as follows: President, Miss Lucy Stone; secretary, Miss Clara Hope; treasurer, Miss Helen Gifford. The following committees were appointed: membership, Miss Dorothy Gordon, chairman, Eloise Green, and Katherine Tuttle; religious, Miss Martha Kalmis, chairman, and Miss Helen Linnell; refreshment, Miss Florence Bugbee, chairman, Mrs. Florence Tracy and Miss Lois Gowdy; advisory committee, Miss Grace Child (Franklin), Mrs. Lucy Buck, and Mrs. Robert Penton; publicity, Miss Clara Hope. Following the business meeting there was dancing for the young ladies with a song by Miss Martha Kalmis. It was then announced that the members of the society would be introduced to the Pilgrims who landed at Plymouth in 1620. Members of the society dressed to represent Governor Bradford, Elder Brewster, Miles Standish, Thomas Hooker, Mrs. Hooker, Mrs. White and Peregrine White, were introduced and were followed by Squanto, Samoset, Massasoit, and a group of Indians. During the time an account of the history of the landing of the Pilgrims was being read by Miss Helen Barrows. The entertainment closed soon after this and the members departed for their homes. The Young Women's Guild as it is known at the present, although holding its meetings at the Congregational church house is not connected with the church and young ladies from the other churches are eligible for membership. There is to be a meeting in the near future to decide upon a name for the guild. It was formerly known as the Solitaires club.

BRIEF STATE NEWS
Winsted—Beginning Monday, the price of bread in Winsted will be increased one cent per loaf, making the price 16 and 11 cents. The reason for the advance, which is general throughout the state, is due to the increase in cost of flour.

East Berlin—A pool tournament has been organized among the members of Knights of Pythias society with Jay and Harold C. Clark, captains. The teams have been picked and games will commence at once, the losing team to furnish the supper.

Manchester—Claude Traux, a former Manchester contractor, has been appointed by Upson & Wins of Hartford general supervisor of construction at the Memorial hospital. Mr. Traux has been a supervisor of construction at the Groton Iron Works in Groton.

New Britain—Edwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. McAvoy, broke his right forearm while playing piggyback with a playmate. He undertook to carry a boy who was heavier than he could comfortably carry and in falling with his load fell on his arm, causing the break.

New Britain—What is probably the largest house-building contract ever awarded in this city has been given by the Hardware City Loan Corporation to the New Britain Lumber & Coal Company, and calls for the erection of twenty-one three-story tenement houses. The amount involved is $242,500.

New Britain—After being prisoner for half an hour in the vault of the board of public works, Miss Florence

Capfield, stenographer, staggered out weakened and short of breath, but calm and cool, considering her adventure. To obtain her release it was necessary to force the vault door with crowbars. The door had been expected to be a man who did it as a practical joke.

We're All For Them.
In proposing to starve themselves to death the I. W. W. prisoners at Leavenworth have taken, for the first time, action in which they will receive a large and enthusiastic measure of public support.—Kansas City Times.

THANKSGIVING
